Does this financial services provider give independent advice?

Independent advice on products must meet two conditions.

Pension product

Condition 1: Compares a sufficient number of pension products

This financial services provider does not meet this requirement because buro philip van den hurk does not compare at least 10 pension product providers.

Condition 2: Offers not only pension products from affiliated providers

This financial service provider meets this condition.

No, not independent

Why should you choose this financial service provider?

buro philip van den hurk is also the right partner when it comes to pensions. Years of experience have made the nuances of pension accrual part of a customised consultation. This means you have nothing to worry about while you look forward to your retirement!

Pension question: Employer

What do you need to pay for this financial services provider?

Here, you can find average prices only. The average price is the price customers in a comparable situation have paid. The more complex your financial situation, the higher the costs generally are. Your financial services provider will inform you of the exact price. Always have agreements recorded in writing, so you know what the financial services provider does for you and how much you have to pay for this.

	Fewer than 250 employees	More than 250 employees
Giving advice and arranging the contract	€ 3,500	€ 3,500
Only arranging the contract	×	×
Only giving advice	×	×

buro philip van den hurk applies a starting fee of € 3,500. Additional costs depend on the number of participants and the required frequency of communication with employer and employees.

How can this financial services provider help you in the future?

When changes in your personal situation occur, always go back to a financial services provider. These changes might mean the pension product may no longer fit your new situation. For example, due to changes in your family situation or income. You may be paying too much, or running more risk than is necessary.

You can always visit a financial services provider for an exploratory meeting. If there is a significant change in your pension product, your financial services provider will contact you free of charge.

Does this financial service provider also offer maintenance services? ¹

For maintenance services, you pay a subscription fee.

For more information on other services in the future, please check the website of your financial services provider: www.burophilipvandenhurk.nl.
